Please provide details of all persons who have parental responsibility and anyone else you wish to be contacted in an emergency.

A parent has parental responsibility if:

- the parents of a child are married to each other at the time of the birth, or if they have jointly adopted a child, then they both have parental responsibility
- A father, however, has this responsibility only if he is married to the mother when the child is born or has acquired legal responsibility for his child through one of these three routes:
 - by jointly registering the birth of the child with the mother
 - by a parental responsibility agreement with the mother
 - by a parental responsibility order, made by a court

Please place them in order of priority in the event of an emergency.
