Previous fundraising event update

- LP has previously informed that the profit of recent fundraising will follow whilst final parent pay totals are finalised.
- JP gave positive feedback from Summer PTFA parties and they all had good participation.

Upcoming events

Summer Fayre - Friday 8th July

- It was decided to plan a 'carnival' style Summer Fair at 4.30pm on Friday 8th July.
- A theme of 'Summer Carnival' was welcomed, whereby children will be invited to come in colourful clothing, brightly coloured/feather masks and also invited to make/bring musical instruments.
- A range of ideas were discussed to add to the 'carnival' theme including-
 - A voluntary donation for entry or a more affordable entry fee was discussed with recent increases in cost of living.
 - It was also decided that just snacks and drinks will be offered in order to keep the current increases in living costs in mind for families.
 - A range of stalls were suggested including -
 - Licensed bar.
 - Popcorn.
 - Ice cream van.
 - Samosas.
 - Hair braids.
 - Glitter tattoos/face painting.
 - Coloured hair spraying.
 - Penalty shoot out - Mr Mills?
 - Circus skills.
 - Local company stalls to be offered for £15 a stall.
 - Bottle tombola.
 - Fill a jar.
 - Teddy tombola.
 - Stocks.
 - Welly wanging.
 - Tight roping/trial challenge.
- JP was also optimistic for the new 'teepee' to be used during the event.
- HM offered to put together a poster to gain interest for local businesses to book a stall for £15. It will also give parents an opportunity to 'save the date' and to request donations of bottles, soft toys, and raffle prizes etc.
